

REBEKAH HAWKER

"Rebekah Hawker is poised as the antithesis to modern pop music. Her art isn't deemed by internet-era frivolities, but with emotive lyrics that can carry as much might as an incoming tempest betwixt wistful melodies that speak to the heart."

—Jonathan Frahm, For Folk's Sake

The ability to command an audience is a quality that most of us do not possess and yet every great performer must, and it is in her contrasts that Rebekah Hawker manages to achieve this perfectly. Her lyrics and melodies are a serious affair, evoking powerful images that resonate unbiasedly, they speak of a life lived, not imagined, giving an authenticity to the ups and downs strewn throughout her musical tales. Yet on the other hand, her audience interaction and stage persona are so wonderfully light and refreshing that she transforms what could be a sombre experience in a joyful, cathartic journey. Humble, self-deprecating, earnest and consistently hilarious, she smiles often and easily, and it takes only one look through a typical crowd to see that it's contagious. Sometimes, a performer can be said to never leave a dry eye in the house. With Rebekah, there is never a frown.

Rebekah Hawker is a country folk singer-songwriter from Barrie, Ontario. In February 2019 she travelled across Canada on the VIA Rail train as their artist entertainer and in March 2019 she received FACTOR Canada's Artist Development grant to support the release of her debut EP 'Careful Women.' Following the release of her single 'Round of Fools' in July and full EP in August she has already garnered 15,000 streams on Spotify.
